

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE : CLINICAL PHARMACOLOGIST

DEPARTMENT : PHARMACY

REPORTING TO : MEDICAL SUPERINTENDENT

JOB SPECIFICATION:

Qualification : M.D (Pharmacology)

Experience : 0-3 years

Skill : Updated knowledge of medicines availability, Good inter-personal, Communication skills

Job Locations: Chennai, Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Mumbai, Kolkata & Delhi

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

Prescription Audit and related

- Lead the prescription audit team
- Guide the team in auditing all the indents to anticipate, prevent, and investigate medication errors of all types
- Monitor the movement of non formulary items and submit a report to drug and therapeutic committee periodically
- Coordinate with doctors and suggest dose adjustments in cases of abnormal pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics of drugs
- Coordinate with doctors and nurses and answer to queries related to proper use, storage, stability and over dose of drugs
- Monitor the drug interaction if any and do the root cause analysis
- Monitor the restricted antibiotic consumption and coordinate with infection control officer
- Anticipating, preventing & investigating drug interaction
- Responsible for proper disposal and documentation of left over narcotics
- Responsible for maintaining crash carts, imprest stock, and disaster kits

- If any non formulary drugs indented, inform the same to the concerned doctors and substitute it with drugs given in the formulary

Learning & Development

- Conduct periodical training to ward/ICU pharmacist and nurses (If required) to upgrade their knowledge base

Drug & Therapeutic, Safety and infection control committees

- Coordinate with doctors and forward their recommendations to drug & therapeutic committee for addition or deletion of drug from formulary
- Coordinate with drug & therapeutic, safety and infection control committee

To apply kindly email your CV to careers@apollopharmacy.org